

Colditz Challenge 2018

Dear Leader,

Thank you for your interest in Colditz Challenge 2018. This pack should contain everything you need to enter a team, including all of the paperwork.

Page 2 contains a brief overview of the event and an interest slip which can be given to each Scout showing initial interest in Colditz. Page 3 is a story for the event. Pages 4, 5 and 6 contains some additional information for you, detailing what actually happens during the event. Once you have sufficient interest, page 7 can be filled in, printed and sent back to the organisers. You will then be emailed login details to enable you to enter basic details of the team. Please print out and fill in two copies of the permission form per entrant, preferably printing on a laser printer and writing in biro (one copy will remain with the Scouts whilst on site, and may end up getting wet!). Please DO NOT laminate any of the paperwork as it needs to be re-filled and folded during its life.

Colditz is run by East Sussex Scouts, and uses one of their leader's camp permits. Therefore there is no need for the Scouts to have their own camping passport, or for you to stay. However, to make the event work properly we do need volunteers to help run bases in the evening. If you are able to run, or help out on a base, then we would ask that you be on site from 19:00, for a briefing at 19:30 ready for teams to arrive at your base from 20:00 onwards. The event finishes at 00:00, after which there are hot drinks and biscuits available at the camp site. There is the option for you to stay overnight if you wish. If you think you may be able to help, then please email helpers@colditzchallenge.org.uk.

Yours In Scouting,

The Colditz Team

Colditz Challenge 2018

It is 1943 and whilst flying over Germany on a top secret mission you and your unit were shot down. All survived, however, you were captured. After interrogation you were imprisoned in the Colditz prisoner of war camp. Whilst in Colditz you have been contacted by a member of the local resistance unit who have supplied a plan for you and your unit to escape.

This is the plan:

Every member of your team will be given a passport. You will require this to track the items you have obtained, and in case you are found by the guard patrols.

Firstly, you must escape from your cells (walk to the game zone).

In the barracks around Colditz you have to find local members of the resistance to obtain the items that you will need to escape from the fenced off area. In this area there are guards attempting to re-capture you. If a member of your unit is captured then their passport will be marked.

Once you have got all of the required items you may make your way to the checkpoint. This will not open until 10:30pm. From this time onwards, guards will be patrolling the area in a regular pattern. Learn this pattern to slip past the guards.

Register with the resistance contact once you have gone through the checkpoint.

From here you will be directed to another area in the forest where you can pick up the supplies you will need to complete your escape. These can be found with resistance members, who will be constantly on the move. You must visit both resistance members. You will receive one item from each member. You cannot re-visit any resistance members in this area, as they do not have sufficient supplies, and obtaining more will cause them to be discovered by the guards.

Once you have seen all of the resistance members you will have all of the supplies that you need, and should head to the final checkpoint. The head of the resistance will meet you here, and lead you to freedom.

You must stay together as a unit. Any incomplete unit found by the guards will automatically be taken back to their cells (base camp). If your unit is discovered by the guards, they will mark one of your passports. If you have lost your passport then you should return to your cells to obtain a new one. Any team member found by a guard without a passport, or failing to hand over a passport will be escorted back to the cells.

From Zone 1 you will need to collect 8 items. Each resistance member will give you one item just for finding them, however you can gain extra points by completing their activity. Some of the resistance members will only be able to provide a specific item (ie the ladder), some will be able to provide you with whatever you need. You will need to work out which resistance member has which item. The items are:

- Rope
- Ladder
- Uniform
- Spade
- Dog food
- Local currency
- Map to safe houses
- Grappling hooks

From Zone 2 you will need to collect 4 items, two from each resistance member. These are:

- Food
- Money
- Travel documents
- List of safe houses

Finally, good luck!

Guidance Notes - Food

This year the food will again be centrally provided with teams cooking in their own team areas. Using the ingredients supplied by the organisers and equipment supplied by yourselves, teams must prepare and eat a two course meal (main and desert). Patrols should provide their own cooking oil and personal drinks, may also bring no more than two raw ingredients* and no more than two portions of condiments (herbs, spices or sauces) to complement their meal. Patrols will be cooking on their own cookers (see footnote regarding cooker ) although an open fire will be available for those who wish to 'backwoods' cook.

Teams will be given up to two hours to cook, eat and clear away their meal. Teams must not wash up under the taps on site, so they must bring washing up bowls to clean their utensils.

Teams will be supplied with ingredients that will include (for a team of 4):

- Sausages OR beef burgers OR vegetarian option
- Pasta
- 2 x eggs
- Fruit
- 2 x types of seasonal veg
- Swiss rolls
- Custard

Additionally, teams will be supplied ingredients for a cooked breakfast on Sunday morning.

* Allergies – if your additional raw ingredients or condiments contain nuts or shellfish they must be 'declared' prior to opening.

 Cookers – Scout leaders must check that their cookers are safe to use prior to issuing to a team and must sign that their Scouts are knowledgeable of the correct safe use of their cookers.

The organisers have a strong preference that any gas cookers have a hose between the burner and canister so there is no place for gas to pool if they are not correctly connected.

Colditz Challenge 2018

Guidance Notes – Activities

There are two trophies up for grabs over the course of the weekend.

The Skill's Trophy for the team that does best during the afternoon "Scouting Skills" Challenge. It is a team-based event that this year will require teams to bring along 12 x 2 metre bamboo canes and some elastic bands.

The Colditz Trophy for the team that gains the most points during the evening exercise. The challenge is to escape from 'Colditz' having collected all the items necessary to aide escape and gained as many points as possible by visiting bases and completing the incidents set. All this without being captured by the Explorer 'Guards' and therefore losing some of the points gained.

The scoring for the Colditz Trophy is kept as simple as possible. There are points for visiting bases (marks for finding the base and marks for completing the activity), and points for getting through to zone 2 and finding the resistance members. For each time a team is found by the guards, they lose 1 point. There are occasionally variations, such as one year where due to the weather many teams' cards were too wet to identify – therefore we gave points for handing in legible cards.

Key points for the Colditz Trophy Activity

Emergencies: Each team will be given instructions of what to do in an emergency.

Team Card: Each team member will carry a team card and these must be handed in at each base for the staff to fill in; they must be collected as the team leaves the base.

Meeting Other Teams: When a team meets another team they should not discuss where they have been or what they have done, as this may give the other team an advantage.

Bases: Teams will be awarded points for their manners and the way that they tackle the incident. Team members should work together as points will be awarded for teamwork.

Guards: Teams will have points deducted if the guards catch them, however they will be able to continue and perhaps earn the points back. All the bases are safety zones and teams cannot be captured whilst completing an incident. However, teams cannot wait on a base if there is no room for them.

Note: The medical profession takes the view that the parent's consent to medical treatment cannot be delegated. This view is explicit in the Children Act 1989. Thus medical consent forms have no legal status and a doctor/nurse insisting on the consent of a parent to a particular treatment has the right to do so. For this reason, we do not recommend that Leaders insist on parents signing the statement above. However, it can be a comfort to medical staff to have general consent in advance from parents or to have a Leader on hand able to sign forms required by medical authorities.
All activities will be run in accordance with The Scout Association's safety rules. No responsibility for the personal equipment/clothing and effects can be accepted by the trip organisers and The Scout Association does not provide automatic insurance cover in respect to such items.
